

CSC204 – Principles of Programming Languages

Report and Presentation Required Points:

1. Developing history of the Language (Year, People, House, Environment).
2. Domain and Category of the Programming Language.
3. Goals, Concerns, Success, and Contribution of the Language.
4. What is special or new in the Programming Language.
5. Overview of the Programming Language including Examples and description of major parts or commands of the language.
6. Comments and evaluation of the Programming Language.
7. Not Allowed to copy/cut and paste from any source, each information should be formed in easy, clear and understood method for the presentations.
8. List of References (Each information should be followed by its source/reference).

Report and Presentation Submission:

1. Report should be written in Word / Presentation should be in PowerPoint.
2. Report and Presentation should be submitted as softcopy and as hardcopy too.
3. The presentation should be 10 to 20 slides.
4. The time allowed for each presentation/group is 15 mins.